PRODUCER PROFILE:

No, your eyes are not deceiving you. The spirit nerds at PM Spirits have bottled some Sherry..

We're fortunate to be friends with some of the most respected folks in the Sherry industry, and during our travels to Jerez for work on the Navazos Palazzi brand, we would constantly be drinking some of the most incredible Sherry. We thought - why not blend and bottle some of these extraordinary casks and bring them back to the US? So that's what we did.

With the expert help of our dear friend Eduardo Ojeda - chief winemaker at Valdespino and La Guita for decades, co-owner of cult sherry bottlers Equipo Navazos, and senior advisor to Grupo Estévez, perhaps the most revered Sherry bodega in Spain -we have bottled four expressions of the finest fortified wine that Jerez has to offer.
